Brandon Buttars Pilots Halo Cat to NRCHA Derby Open Hackamore Championship

10/29/2011

Brandon Buttars and Halo Cat had a little bad luck in the herd work of the preliminary round of the National Reined Cow Horse Association Derby. When the Snowville, Utah, trainer realized that he wouldn't make the finals, he rushed to the show office to see if he could still enter the Open Hackamore class.

"I entered the class at the last minute. I guess we got lucky and won," Buttars said modestly. He and Halo Cat, owned by Deirdre Hill, marked a 219 in the rein work and a 219.5 in the cow work for a 438.5 total, worth $2,864. "He was really good today in the hackamore. He was actually better in the Hackamore today than he was in the snaffle bit in the Derby." Buttars has ridden "Ernie," by WR This Cats Smart and out of Stylin Jewel, since the colt was a 2-year-old. In that time the pair qualified for the Open Finals of the Snaffle Bit Futurity, and finished as Co-Reserve Champions of the Cinch Intermediate Open Snaffle Bit Futurity. "DeeDee (Deirdre Hill) has also shown him in the boxing a few times this spring – and they've won a check every time."

"I thank DeeDee for letting me ride him. He's a very special horse," Buttars said.

Brad Barkemeyer won the Reserve title and $2,148 on Smartee, by Smart Little Lena out of Starlight Playgirl, with a 436 total. Smartee is owned by Lucava Farms Inc.
