Leader Phil Rapp on Desires Blue Trinity

Wagonhound Open Classic/ Challenge

RAPP'S DESIRED LEAD

Thursday the action at the Paso Robles Event Center ramped up into intensive competition with confidently expressive five and six year-old horses and extremely talented riders. In the Open Classic Challenge First Go Round, the field of riders comprised some of the best cutting horse trainers in North America to assemble on the Pacific Coast. Tough Texans challenged their western peers and the high scores in this Go reflected the quality of cattle, horses and riders. 222's seemed to be almost easy to get with seven horses deserving and receiving this enviable number. Seventy

-six horses competed in the First Go Round with forty-seven advancing to the second round with scores of 216.5 or higher.

Tenth out in the second herd, Phil Rapp (LTE: $8,088,864) and Desires Blue Trinity (Mecom Blue X Desiree Smart Lena) wowed the enthusiastic crowd with a sparkling 225 run for owner, Cox Trinity Equine. Formally a Napa, California resident, Phil and his family now live in Weatherford, Texas. Wife Mary Ann is also an accomplished Non Pro Cutter (LTE: $3,905,913) and their two children, Ryan (12 yrs.) and daughter Emma (7yrs), are their biggest fans. With Emma's excited, "Good job Daddy," Phil happily reflected upon this after his run. Desires Blue Trinity is a stallion Phil has "admired for a long time." Trained by Chris Johnsrud, who "did a wonderful job training him," the stallion came to Phil to show in July of this year. Since then, the duo has made the Finals of every aged event they have entered (Amarillo, TX, Idaho, West Monroe, LA., and Brazos Bash). However, Phil proudly admitted, "This is the best run I have had on him yet." Of note: Phil received the coveted PCCCHA Ed Smith Memorial Sportsmanship Award in 2012 and his father Jerry was inducted into the PCCCHA Hall of Fame in 2003.

Cat Mom Do (High Brow Cat X Moms Stylish Babe) ridden by Matt Gaines (LTE: $6,414,090) of Weatherford, Texas trailed by just one half point posting a 224.5. Cat Mom Do (just "Mom" for short) is owned by Reata Cutting Horses LLC of Los Olivos, California. According to NCHA records, Cat Mom Do's winnings are over $168,000 to date. Matt Budge trained the mare, with Gaines taking over the reins at the start of this year and chalking up wins, See Classic Challenge p.3

Open Cutting Stakes Matt's WHOLLY Gain

Matt Gaines and Wholly Boon

The First Go Round of the Open Cutting Stakes was held on Friday filled with eighty-nine horses divided into eight herds. Midway through the class, Paul Hansma (LTE: $5,206,388) of Alberta, Canada took the lead showing Overdrive (Hydrive Cat X Lenas Horn) owned by Dub & Christy Leeth to a smooth 221. Hansma grew up on the west coast of Canada in a ranching family with four brothers. Paul recalled that his dad, Hans "always talked about Shorty, Buster and Matlock," who are cutting iconic legends. Riding horses in 4-H, AQHA and later working cow horses, Paul established the base for "the next step" into cutting. By the way, two of Paul's brothers (Gerry & Winston) are cutters, too. His oldest brother (Taco) is in the cattle hoof trimming business and his youngest brother (David) manages an event complex much like the Paso Robles Event Center. Paul and his wife Julie have three daughters, including a set of twins. According to Paul, Clint Allen trained the gelding Overdrive until late into the colt's third year. Paul took Reserve Champion at the NCHA Derby and won the Abilene Summer Spectacular showing Overdrive. He described the gelding's style as "a lotta reach, lotta look, and a lotta stop."

However, Hansma was upstaged in the sixth herd by Matt Gaines' 221.5 run on Wholly Boon (Peptoboonsmal X Wholly Cats). Matt, who's lifetime earnings total more than $6,500,000, calls Weatherford, TX home with his Non Pro Cutting wife Tara (LTE: $180,000). The couple has been married since 2007. Tara credits Lindy Burch as their "relationship manager" for setting them up. Wholly Boon, a gelding, answers to the barn name of "Preacher." Yet Preacher had actually been a good case-in-point for gelding stallions. Matt had unsuccessfully tried to convince Preacher's previous owner to geld him, and had paid the price with runs that were out of the money. "I finally got the guy to cut him," Matt said. Then Stephanie and prize money and recognition such as winning at Tunica in Mississippi, earning a finalist position at the Super Stakes, and a Reserve Championship at the Summer Spectacular in Ft Worth, TX. Of Cat Mom Do, Matt shared his expertise stating, "Mom has all the tools it takes. She's one of those few horses that have the potential to win, not just advance. Cut the right kind of cow and you can win."

The world class field of five and six year-olds yielded 7 ties for third place in the 1st Go with scores of 222. Those tying for third place honors include: Stylish Bet ridden by Lindy Burch, This Kittys Smart & Morgan Cromer, Woodys Wildest Cat with Clint Allen, Clays Little Kit Kat and Paul Hansma, Time for Finals ridden by Brent Erickson, Card Trick with

CUTTING STAKES (cont'd from page 2)

Chuck Roven bought him about two weeks ago. Matt thinks Preacher has always "had a good style", though being a stallion had previously stood in his way. "I was fortunate to cut three pretty good cows." Their 221 score retained the lead throughout the rest of the Open Cutting

Stakes First Go Round.

The third place slot in this Go was earned by Boyd Rice riding CR First Tuff (Woody be Tuff X Dees Cat's Meow) for owner Center Ranch. Their score was 219.5.

Sixty-five horses advance to the Second Go Round with scores of 212 or higher.

It's important to note that the Cutting Stakes contain only four year-old foals sired by a PCCHA subscribed stallion. The stallion subscription fees help create the high dollar purse, which will be awarded following the Finals on Saturday, November 2.
